3 MATTERS ARISING

Her Majesty's Inspectorate of Constabulary's report on an unannounced inspection visit to police custody suites in Hertfordshire is available from this link:

<http://www.justiceinspectors.gov.uk/hmiprisons/wp-content/uploads/sites/4/2015/11/Hertfordshire-police-custody-Web-2015.pdf>

The Chairman confirmed that the Panel has published its report to support the Commissioner's proposed precept of £147 for Band D properties on the Panel's website. The Commissioner has also responded to the Panel's report.

4 PUBLIC QUESTIONS TO THE POLICE AND CRIME COMMISSIONER

No questions.

5 QUESTIONS TO THE PANEL AND PETITIONS FROM THE PUBLIC

No questions.

6 UPDATE ON COMPLAINT RAISED ABOUT THE POLICE AND CRIME COMMISSIONER

The Chairman thanked Councillor Franey and the subgroup for reviewing the complaint made about the Commissioner. The subgroup found that the majority of the complaint fell outside the Commissioner's remit and, consequently, the review. The allegation that the Commissioner breached the 'Nolan Principles' of Public Life is a subjective observation and, in the subgroup's opinion, not justified. However, the subgroup did find that the manner in which the complaint was handled took too long and have made recommendations as to how the Commissioner's office procedures could be amended to improve these aspects of customer service.

7 END OF TERM UPDATE FROM THE POLICE AND CRIME COMMISSIONER

The Commissioner reflected on his term in office. The Police and Crime Plan, called "Everybody's Business", will be measured by the electorate at the Police and Crime Commissioner election in May 2016. The policing precept has not increased at any point during the term. The cost of the policing estate has decreased by working with other parts of the public sector. Collaborative working with Bedfordshire and Cambridgeshire police forces will achieve savings over the next few years.

The Commissioner advised that the way crime is recorded has improved to provide a greater level of confidence with policing. There is a more robust method of measuring cybercrime. Incidents which are important to the public, such as fly-tipping, are now routinely recorded.

The Commissioner advised that the neighbourhood policing model has been retained with a Chief Inspector and neighbourhood policing team in each borough. This has gained recognition from Her Majesty's Inspectorate of Constabulary. There will be a total of 126 new police officers by the end of 2015/16, a net gain of around 10 police officers. Police community support officers (PCSOs) have also been retained.

The Commissioner noted that mental health sufferers are often taken to the cells but this does not happen in Hertfordshire. A psychiatric nurse is located in the force control room during the night. The Hertfordshire victim care centre called Beacon has helped thousands of people since it opened. A virtual courts system has been established which means offenders do not need to leave custody to attend a Magistrates Court.

Mr Laidlaw-Dickson observed that the focus has been on local policing and asked how strategic issues such as terrorism, domestic violence and child abuse are also focussed on. The Commissioner advised that collaboration at a regional level in the Eastern Region takes place regarding strategic issues.

Cllr Martins welcomed that PCSOs will be retained, as they contribute towards keeping Watford safe, but raised concerns about the pressures faced by PCSOs. Cllr Martins also asked whether the Commissioner could confirm the future of Watford police station. The Commissioner advised that the majority of employees in the public sector have to do more and it is no different for the police. In other parts of the country, such as Essex, there are no longer PCSOs. The Commissioner noted that there is generally some confusion between Watford police station and the custody suite. A report commissioned on the long term future of the custody suite has been sent to the Major/Leader, Chief Executive and Member of Parliament in Watford, Three Rivers and Dacorum. The closure of the custody suite has not had a significant impact but this decision will be reviewed again in three months. Each borough or district has a police station and there will be a police station in Watford.

The Chairman raised that the police station in Broxbourne is closing and comments made by the local sergeant at a neighbourhood forum were disappointing. The Chairman asked the Commissioner if he could ensure officers are briefed so they can give a decent response at public meetings. The Commissioner noted the comments made.

Cllr Hunter highlighted some concerns about the road safety fund and its application. The Commissioner welcomed the feedback but advised, as he is not responsible for operational policing, he cannot instruct where a camera will be installed but he can say this funding will be used to change driving behaviour. The Chairman advised this could be a topic for the Panel's work programme next year.

Cllr Batson raised concerns about the number of people volunteering for the Drive Safe initiative, as the overall number of volunteers has decreased. This may be because people's expectations are not being met. The Commissioner advised that the funding is not limitless and expectations need to be managed as people make bids which are considered on their individual merits.

Dr Ramsay noted that there have been more fly-tipping reports this year which can be attributed to the reduced opening hours at the Household Waste Recycling Centres and the introduction of white van permits at the same sites. The Commissioner advised he believed the main issue was people fly-tipping as a business and it required more enforcement and joint working between the police, Hertfordshire County Council and the districts to resolve the issue.

The Chairman noted that participation in the Stop and Search Scrutiny Panel is not uniform across the county. The Commissioner advised that the Stop and Search Scrutiny Panel still requires more members.

8 EMERGENCY SERVICES COLLABORATION (POLICING AND CRIME BILL)

The Chairman advised that there is the possibility of bringing blue lights under the remit of the Commissioner as part of the Policing and Crime Bill. The Commissioner advised that in some areas the boundaries of policing and fire do not overlap, whereas in other areas this proposal would be simple to implement, such as in Bedfordshire. This discussion has taken place in Hertfordshire and it is helpful to review whether police and fire can work more effectively together.

9 REVIEW UPDATES

Victim support

Cllr Batson noted she could not get in to the event at the courts during Victim Awareness week in February and suggested more notice of planned events may be helpful in future years.

The Chairman welcomed the excellent Beacon presentation by Mr McGetrick at the Panel's meeting held on 28 January 2016.

Statistics

Dr Ramsay advised he will write to Deputy Chief Constable to arrange a meeting to discuss performance and statistics with relevant staff at the Constabulary.

10 ANY OTHER BUSINESS

The Commissioner advised that the Chief Constable's term of appointment expires on 5 June 2016. As it would be unhelpful to start a recruitment process immediately prior to an election, the Chief Constable has been asked to extend his contract by one year. The Commissioner is able to extend the Chief Constable's contract by three years and then annually without informing the Panel. If re-elected, the Commissioner intends to keep the Deputy Commissioner in his role.

The Chairman thanked the Commissioner for attending all of the Panel's meetings during his term of office.

11 DATE OF THE NEXT MEETING

Thursday 26 May 2016 – meeting to be held at Broxbourne Borough Council's offices

HERTFORDSHIRE POLICE AND CRIME PANEL

MAIN MEETING

REVIEW OF PANEL MEMBERSHIP REVIEW, 2016-17 WORK PROGRAMME, RULES OF PROCEDURE AND TRAINING REQUIREMENTS

Tom Hewins
Broxbourne Borough Council

Agenda item 7

26 May 2016

RECOMMENDATIONS

That the Panel:-

- 1 Makes no changes to its political membership other than those notified by the constituent authorities.
- 2 Commences a recruitment process for an additional independent member.
- 3 Approves the work programme and dates of meetings for 2016/17.
- 4 Considers whether any revision to the Rules of Procedure should be made.
- 5 Changes complaints handling arrangements so complaints which fall under the Panel's jurisdiction are reviewed by the Panel and the current delegation to the Chief Executive of the Commissioner's office is withdrawn.
- 6 Suggests member training requirements for the year 2016/17, including the training day scheduled for later in the year.

Purpose of Report

To review the membership of the Panel following the local elections held in May 2016, the work programme for the year ahead, the Panel's Rules of Procedure and the training requirements for members of the Panel.

Background

The Panel is required to review its membership and ensure the balanced appointment objective is met. This is also the time of year that constituent councils confirm Panel representatives at their annual meetings. The Panel has previously been advised of the likely work programme so the dates of future meetings can be programmed. The Panel's Rules of Procedure were adopted in December 2012 and updated in June 2013 and June 2014. Members are invited to review the Rules of Procedure (attached as Appendix 'A' to this report) to consider whether any further amendments would be helpful.

Review of Membership

The Panel must achieve the balanced appointment objective set out in the Police Reform and Social Responsibility Act 2011. This means that the members of the Panel must, as far as practicable, represent all parts of the police area, represent the political make up of the constituent local authorities, and provide the skills, knowledge and experience necessary to discharge the functions of the Panel effectively. The Panel is required to review its membership to determine that the balanced appointment objective remains met as far as practicable.

The elections in May resulted in no change to the political control of any constituent councils but a small change in the total numbers of councillors for the political parties. The current political make up is:

Political Balance

	Conservative	Labour	Liberal Democrat	Other
Broxbourne	26	3	0	1 (UKIP)
Dacorum	46	2	3	0
East Herts	48	0	0	2 (Ind)
Hertfordshire	46	15	16	0
Hertsmere	36	2	0	1 (Ind)
North Herts	34	12	3	0
St Albans	31	7	17	3 (Grn/Ind)
Stevenage	7	29	3	0
Three Rivers	17	3	19	0
Watford	0	11	25	0
Welwyn Hatfield	28	15	5	0
Total	319	99	91	7

On 19 May 2016 there were a total of 516 councillors across the county.

516 / 11 = 46.9 Suggests for every 46.9 councillors a party ought to have one member of the PCP

319 / 46.9 = 6.8 Conservative

99 / 46.9 = 2.11 Labour

91 / 46.9 = 1.94 Liberal Democrat

7 / 46.9 = 0.15 Others

Appointments by the authorities are:

- 8 Conservative

- 1 Labour
- 2 Liberal Democrat

The Panel decided in 2012 to appoint an additional Labour party representative to better achieve political balance. The Panel has also appointed one further co-opted member to add expertise to the Panel. The balanced appointment is still met, as constituent councils will want to nominate a member of their controlling group to represent the local authority on the Panel. The Panel has been notified of some changes to the nominations by constituent authorities as follows:

- East Hertfordshire: lead member – Councillor Stephen Reed; substitute member – Councillor David Oldridge
- Hertfordshire County Council: substitute member – County Councillor Tony Hunter
- Welwyn Hatfield: lead member - to be confirmed orally

Independent Members

The Panel had three independent members not related to the political appointment objective up to the end of 2015/16 but one member has resigned from the role and a second member's term has expired. Therefore, the Panel currently has one independent member not related to the political appointment objective. The Panel can have up to two independent members not related to the political appointment objective. However, in 2014 the Panel was given special dispensation by the Home Office to appoint an additional independent member due to the quality of the candidates who applied for the role during the recruitment process.

It is recommended that the Panel commences a recruitment process to appoint an additional independent member to add further expertise to the Panel. Previous vacant positions have been advertised and appointment delegated to a panel of three members.

Work Programme

The main statutory roles of the Panel require the schedule of meetings to follow the timetable of the Police and Crime Commissioner's key actions throughout the year. The Panel was advised previously that four meetings per annum are required to fulfil the statutory requirements of the Panel. The proposed schedule of meetings is as follows:

Date	Agenda
Thursday 21 July 2016 (date to be confirmed)	Possible meeting for consideration of the Commissioner's appointments of Chief Executive and Chief Finance Officer. Consideration of the annual complaints report

Thursday 10 November 2016	Consideration of the emerging precept and Police and Crime Plan issues
Thursday 2 February 2017	Consideration of the Commissioner's proposed budget and precept for 2016/17
Thursday 16 February 2017	Conclusion of the scrutiny of the Commissioner's proposed budget and precept for 2016/17 (if required) and consideration of the Commissioner's Police and Crime Plan
Thursday 15 June 2017	Review of the Panel's membership, the annual report of the PCC and consideration of the annual complaints report

Further meetings will be required should any senior appointments be proposed by the Police and Crime Commissioner.

The Panel also currently has three subgroups looking at victim support, statistics and force collaboration.

The Panel may wish to consider if further agenda items or additional meetings are needed to carry out work beyond the basic statutory requirements of the Panel.

Amendments to the Panel's Rules of Procedure

No amendments to the Rules of Procedure are required but the Panel is invited to consider whether any should be made to assist with the better performance of the Panel's role.

Complaints

The handling of complaints against the Commissioner is currently delegated to the Chief Executive of the Commissioner's office. If it is determined that there is a conflict of interest, the complaint is referred to the Panel for informal resolution.

Following a complaint which was referred by the Chief Executive of the Commissioner's office to the Panel in December 2015, the Panel set up a subgroup to review the complaint and make recommendations to the Commissioner.

It is recommended that complaints which fall under the Panel's jurisdiction are reviewed by the Panel and the current delegation to the Chief Executive of the Commissioner's office is withdrawn.

Training Requirement

It is proposed that a training session will be held later in the year to provide members of the Panel with an overview of the roles and responsibilities of the Panel, Commissioner and Chief Constable. The training session will also cover police finance and budgets.

Panel members are invited to propose training that would be helpful in carrying out their roles on the Panel.

Financial, Legal and Risk Implications

The Panel is funded by the Home Office for at least a further 12 months. The cost of training will come from the budget held by the host authority. There are no other financial implications outlined in this report. There is no legal requirement to have public participation in the Panel's meetings. The Panel is required by law to meet the balanced appointment objective as far as practicable. Other legal and risk implications are set out in the report.
